

Tych Business Solutions Data Scientist vacancies Requirements:-

University degree in the field of Computer Science, Mathematics, Statistics or Information Systems-degree

Proven track record of at least 5 years applied data science/ machine learning

Applied data science skills in complex environments to support customer facing and/ or corporate processes

Technical leadership experience to be able to define the data technology roadmap as part of a cross functional team

Ability to convey complex technical terms to a non-technical audience

Experience in leading agile product teams to achieve outstanding data solutions

Implementation experience for data technology and automation of the data science work flow